A Community of Retired Scholars

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION AND APPLICATION FORM

The Emeritus Faculty of the ANU consists of retired academics, members of council and professional staff of the University who wish to continue an association with the University to serve its interests and those of the wider community. Other retired persons who also share these aims may apply for membership. Retirees eligible for membership of the faculty include visiting fellows, staff of other universities and similar institutions, and surviving spouses or partners of deceased members.

All applications will be considered by the Committee. Successful applicants will be informed. On the payment of the annual fee of $30.00 they will receive a membership card. The annual fee is waived for members over the age of 85.
